Listing of Claims

1-4 (Canceled)

5. (New) A drive axle for a self-propelled work machine, comprising:
 two traction motors integrated into the drive axle and spaced apart from each other;
and
 an electric motor integrated into the drive axle and arranged axially in between the traction motors, wherein the electric motor is configured to drive a hydraulic pump, and wherein the electric motor is arranged at right angles to the traction motors with respect to a longitudinal center line of the drive axle.
6. (New) The drive axle according to claim 5, wherein the drive axle has a lateral insertion opening for the electric motor.
7. (New) The drive axle according to claim 5, wherein the electric motor is arranged horizontally in the drive axle.
8. (New) The drive axle according to claim 6, wherein the electric motor is arranged horizontally in the drive axle.
9. (New) The drive axle according to claim 5, wherein the traction motors and/or the electric motor are constructed as a three-phase synchronous motor.
10. (New) The drive axle according to claim 6, wherein the traction motors and/or the electric motor are constructed as a three-phase synchronous motor.

11. (New) The drive axle according to claim 7, wherein the traction motors and/or the electric motor are constructed as a three-phase synchronous motor.

12. (New) The drive axle according to claim 8, wherein the traction motors and/or the electric motor are constructed as a three-phase synchronous motor.

13. (New) The drive axle according to claim 1, wherein the work machine is an industrial truck.
